

Mundanity

By Leah Bulson - Richard Montgomery High School

Do you mind if I set these here?

whispering dogs with their heads hanging out of car windows hugs at the airport the rainbows that soap bubbles sometimes make (only sometimes) ice cream trucks on the highway the moon during the day knees bouncing to the beat of a song pinky promises train tracks car headlights illuminating rain when it's dark pinwheels spinning in the wind the unique light of each person's smile and their laugh, the distinct notes of their laugh too something challenging when you smell something, hear something that triggers a specific memory lists

Thanks,
You can keep them if you would like.
