

Amor

By Charles Gray – Richard Montgomery High School

I've only ever
Been electrocuted once
On accident
I was trying to plug in a charger
And my finger touched the socket
It send waves
Waves of pulsating pain
They traveled up my arm
But I pulled my hand before they spread
When we held hands that night
It felt the same
But it didn't hurt
It was warm, and exiting
I became a lightning rod
With your electricity flowing through me
My entire body
My whole being
And I never wanted to let go
