

bodi no be wood

By Chioma Urama - Lorton, VA

this bodi will break one thousand times
+ you will burn through her again sinew to soot
soot to soil
this bodi made of wind chime + stardust + mud + pieces borrowed from hands that will turn them over again + again
this bodi make war
 make good on its promise to fade + falter + break to chant + sing + dance + fold
to be home in an erring world
this bodi
this delicate thing
made of water
